This is the last paper that will be sent to those who subscribed for it only during the campaign, unless orders are received to have it continued. We hope that all who have been receiving the paper during the past three months, will authorize us to continue their names on our list.
H. D. Smith tells us that he has private information from Washington to the effect that the Supreme Court has affirmed the Brewer decision. No hint of this has appeared as yet in the Washington dispatches to the daily papers, and we know nothing as to the reliability of Mr. Smith's information.
Mrs. Simpson's has always been head quarters for millinery goods, and will remain so this year as usual. She has received her fall stock and now offers some most attractive goods at very low prices. Ladies will do themselves injustice if they buy anywhere else before examining Mrs. Simpson's goods.
There can be no doubt about the politics of the rising generation. The children were allowed to vote in three of the city school rooms last Tuesday with the following result: Miss Brown's room, rep. 41, dem. 9; Miss Merwin's room, rep. 47, dem. 12; Miss Christian's room, rep. 30, dem. 6. It is needless to say that there were no split tickets.
Mr. Raymond Hankins, who has recently returned from Illinois where he has been living for some years past, has purchased the grocery stock of Hankins & Patterson and will continue the business at the old stand. Mr. Hankins is an old Allen county boy with plenty of push and integrity and we hope to see him succeed.
Rev. R. M. Scott will resume the Series of Sermons on "The Child's Question," next Sabbath eve. The subject will be the "great drama" answering the question, "Won't the Crowd on the Judgment Day, be so Large that God can't Manage It?" "Will Every one Know everything They have Ever Done? If They do, Who Will They Do?"

ON THE 20th of November there will be held in Colony a Union Teacher's Meeting which promises to be the largest meeting of the kind ever held in this part of the State. The committee have spared no pains in arranging an excellent programme on which the names of such veteran educators as President Sanders and Professors Olin and Hamm appear, besides many other educators who have a State reputation.
The forenoon will be devoted to reading circle work under the auspices of the Sanderson Reading Circle, which is one of the largest and most successful circles in the State.
The afternoon session will be devoted to papers by educators mentioned above.
Dr. Lippincott has kindly consented to deliver a lecture in the evening.
Allen county ought to be well represented at this meeting for they will have a chance to become acquainted with the teachers of adjoining counties and also listen to excellent papers on educational topics. The program will be published next week.
A CARD.
Mr. Editor: By your permission I wish through your excellent paper to thank my many friends in Iola and vicinity for their sympathy and kindness to me during my long affliction. I wish also to thank the several Ministers of the Gospel, in Iola and surrounding country for their calls and kind words of exhortation and prayers that they offered up to the Great Giver of all good for my speedy recovery to health. I wish further to thank Dr. Fulton for his skillful treatment, the disease is now conquered, and I feel that I am gradually coming back to life again. I say again, I thank you my friends, may God bless you all, Amen.

DEATH OF J. H. JACKSON.
WICHITA, KAN., Oct. 23, '96.
Editor Register:—With a sad heart I write you of the sudden death of my father, Joseph H. Jackson, who died at our home in Wichita, of paralysis of the heart, Oct. 20, 1896. He was on his way to Dighton, Lane county, but became so ill he was compelled to stop off at our home. He lived but one week after his arrival here. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. J. D. Hewitt of this city, the remains being interred in the Highland cemetery, Wichita. It is a sad bereavement to us but we bow in humble submission and sorrow to the will of our Heavenly Parent who doeth all things well.
